Pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. Section 552 et seq. ("FOIA"), I request access to and copies of documents that discuss the Environmental Protection Agency's preparation for or response to the risks associated with climate change (including but not limited to sea-level rise, flooding, storm surges, drought, heat waves, wildfires and other types of extreme weather events) if those preparations or responses involve the positioning, decommissioning, relocation or potential relocation of physical assets regulated by the Agency, including but not limited to chemical or hazardous waste sites, water or wastewater treatment facilities, power plants, infrastructure or other facilities, whether publicly or privately owned ("the Records").

This request is ongoing, seeking copies of (or access to) all Records as they are filed with the Agency. I am further requesting that the Records be provided to me on computer files or, if not maintained on computer files, in the same format as they are currently maintained at the Agency.

I am a reporter for Bloomberg News, an accredited and recognized news-gathering organization. I request the Records to inform the public about matters of public concern. As a representative of the news media, I am only required to pay for the direct cost of duplication after the first 100 pages. Please waive all applicable fees. In the event a fee waiver is not granted, I agree to pay reasonable fees for the Records, including actual costs up to $250. If you estimate that actual costs will exceed this amount, please contact me so that I may make the appropriate arrangements for payment.

This request is segregable, and your agency may not withhold entire records because of one section that you believe is exempt from disclosure. Under federal law, if you choose to withhold any such parts of the records from disclosure, you must specify in a written response the factual and legal basis for withholding any part of the Records.

Please contact me if I may assist in your office's response to this request. As I am making this request as a journalist and this information is of timely value, I would appreciate your communicating with me by telephone or email, rather than by mail, if you have questions regarding this request.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Christopher Flavelle
